Pvt 2/10/69

At

U. of Chicago

United Press International

Counter-invaders knock down University of Chicago guard after storming administration building and beating up student rebels who have staged a sit-in for 11 days. They carried leaflets saying "Traitors beware . . . even now cross hairs are on the backs of your necks. (Signed) Minutemen." Three raiders were captured but the rebels declined to prosecute.